

Interactive Painting

With Well Known Artist Marge Kinney

Each of the guests participates in adding their own brushstrokes to a landscape scene that Marge has previously outlined on a large canvas. The guests love this interactive process and they engage with laughter and dares. This is a real WOW event!

Sample art images may be viewed at:

As guests enter your event, they encounter a painting “in progress” by the artist. When they wander over, she invites each to add his or her touch. Guests willingly respond and enjoy returning to watch how the sketch transforms into a beautiful landscape. A landscape painting allows the guests greater freedom to move the brush.

The painting is seldom finished and remains the property of the artist. Should the host want the painting completed after the event; there is an additional charge to paint, frame and ship. Some groups choose to draw a name for the picture, which is finished later and shipped to the winner.

The program is utilized for:

- First Night Receptions - Corporate buffet or dinner, painting throughout the evening
- Pre-Dinner Receptions - On the terrace or lawn preceding dinner
- Hospitality Rooms - Morning event for spouses, over several days of a convention
